Yearly Advertisers have the privilege of two changes without additional charge.

Address: Register, Ironton, Missouri.

Lopez's have the latest styles in buttons, trimming silks, etc.

Rooms to rent.—Apply to Mrs. Dr. Gideon, at her residence.

For your winter flannels, blankets, shawls, and dry goods go to Lopez's at once and secure bargains.

Two communications and an advertisement are crowded out of this issue. They will appear next week.

If you want to save from 25 cts. to 50 cts., go to Lopez's and buy your shoes and boots, and don't you forget it.

For a good suit of clothes go to Lopez's.

Men's suits from $5.00 to the very finest of casualties and worsted suits.

We advise you, ladies, to see Lopez's, before sending to the city for a cloak or dolman; they have a large variety at St. Louis prices.

A vote was taken by Rufus Kennamore, of Shannon County, on train No. 1, last Friday, before it divided, above Blumrock, which resulted: Hancock, 136; Garfield, 23.

The popular verdict of those having attended the St. Louis Fair, is that Lopez's sell as cheap, if not cheaper, than city stores. See their cashmere, alpaca, etc., and the low prices asked for them.

If you want to buy genuine Sewing Machines, call and see Herman Davis.

All machines sold are guaranteed, and kept in order for five years, free of charge. Will also sell machines on monthly payments, if desired.

There will be a meeting of the Garfield and Arthur Club, at Pilot Knob, Friday night, October 15th. C. R. Peck will speak on that occasion. Come one, come all.

J. D. GREASON, President.

S. T. GAY, Secretary.

GRAND BALL.—The Ironton Cornet Band will give a Ball and Over-Supper at the Amer can Hotel, on Friday evening, October 23d, 1880. It is intended to make this the Ball of the year. The invitations will be is-ued the latter part of this week. Tickets, (per couple), $1.50.

A miner at Pilot Knob, while examining a revolver given him to repair, accidentally shot himself in the abdomen, on Saturday morning, last. A doctor was summoned at once, but despite his efforts the wounded man died next day. The remains were interred in the Pilot Knob cemetery on Monday.

DIED.—Of Congestive fever, at Annanols,

Mo., Sunday morning, October 10th 1880. Doctor, child of James Shreve, Esq., aged 8 years, 11 months and 24 days.

'Twas hard to witness the agonies of the litt-sufferer as she lay, with no chance to administer mind; but all is well with her now, for with the "Thousands of children around the throne of God in heaven," she is "Singing glory, glory, glory to God on high."

The judgment rendered at the last term of the circuit court of this county, amounting in all to some $48.00, against the estate of Henry

P. Russell and his securities, in favor of E. F.

Smith, an insane person, has been paid in full by the estate and three of the securities.—Dr.

N. C. Griffith, Jno. P. Hayden, and P. H.

Jaquith. We congratulate all the parties upon the termination of this troublesome piece of litigation, which arose from the depreciating of the real estate on which the money had been loaned, caused by the late panic.

Mr. Lybecker, our Music Teacher, has just returned from St. Louis, where he went to look up good and low priced Pianos and Organs for his many customers in the Southeast.—

And he has added to his array of Story & Camp, also Reed & Thompson and H. Sumner & Co.—all three large, responsible and exclusive dealers in Pianos and Organs. By this his new arrangement he can furnish Pianos, 7 octaves, for 200 (warranted) and Organs at $65. As it is almost impossible to come below these figures we advise persons wanting Pianos or Organs to secure them now, and to leave their orders with Mr. Lybecker.

The Bailey Troupe will give an entertainment at the I. O. G. T. Hall Thursday evening. We can promise to our people that it will be good, correct, and full of fun.

The following is from the Buffalo (Mo.)

Register, of August 26:

The Bailey Troupe, which gave two of its unique performances at this place on Saturday and Monday evening, to large and delighted audiences, will give a third and farewell performance on this evening at the Courthouse.

The programme will comprise the beautiful comedy "The Loan of a Lover," in which the entire company is cast, an olio of songs, dances and comic sketches, a negro burlesque "Want to Buy any Taters," and the whole to conclude with the "huron" burlesque. "The Troublesome Servant." The attendance will be large and those who are early will get seats.

A tramp by the name of Geo. Smith, in attempting to jump a train while in motion, at Midlebrook, early Tuesday morning, for the purpose of stealing a ride south, missed his hold and fell beneath the train, the cars pass-

crushing it frightfully. He was brought to Pilot Knob and taken to a hotel, when Dr.

Thomson was called and made an examination and gave it as his opinion that the leg would have to be amputated above the knee, if the patient should recover enough to stand the operation; the patient having nearly died to death from the fact that the parties bringing him down tied his leg below instead of above the knee, and the artery passing between the bones, the tying was of no avail. Smith is an Englishman; he got on a train at Carondelet and succeeded in stealing a ride to Iron Mountain, where he was discovered and put off. Walking to the next station, he again tried to get on with the above terrible result.

Mr. Smith sends us the following gushing and warlike poem, dedicated to our prosecuting attorney, who is now off on his wedding tour:

Close your Blackstone!

Let it rust!

Close your Coke!

For lovers must

Have other recreation;

Then go to work.

And be a man!

And serve your country

While you can.

Do something for the nation!

Don't be idle!

Go to work!

Let the census

Man awake!

And a recount

Shortly make;

And exact enumeration

Of the increased

Population!

To our mountain city hail!

Echo valley, hill and dale!

Go to work, and be a man!

Serve your country while you can.

MR. SMITH.

From Des Arc.

Des Arc, Mo., Oct. 10, 1880.

Ed. Register—

Some time ago a little one-horse show stuck up their bills in Des Arc, and announced that they would show on the 4th of October; and as there are a great many children that never go to Ironton or St. Louis, they were delighted to think that they would have the pleasure of seeing a show at home. So, on Monday, quite a crowd gathered in Des Arc to see the show; but, behold! when the showmen got their tents pitched and ready for business, here comes a license of $40 to pay before they could turn a wheel, and as they did not expect to take in more than $50 or $75, the admission price being only 25 cents, they could not afford to pay it, so they pulled up stakes and left. Now this is a perfect imposition on the citizens of Des Arc and vicinity, as well as on the showmen. I do not say who is to blame for making such an infernal law; but it ought to be remedied in some way. A big show can well afford to pay a big license, but small ones should pay in proportion. Now Iron has lost 20 in this case, he has a good many people went home disappointed.

There will be a monkey in town next week.

I suppose he will have to pay $40.

Everybody went to the fair last week, except a few dead-heads. Uncle Isaac included.

We have a telegraph station now at Gail's Hill. Mr. Gardner will go to some other point.

Vulcan shipped 51 car loads of lumber in September.

Mr. Chas. H. Collins is laying in a large stock of goods.

Mr. Morris, our wide-awake merchant, goes to the city to-night.

I visited Piedmont a few days ago. Mc-Shadlin & Blaine have the biggest house and stock in Southeast Missouri. Have to take a guide with you when you enter or you will get lost. They are selling coffee by the sack at St. Louis prices. ISAAC.

Partly the blood and regulate the bowels, if you would have health. There is no remedy equal to the Pickley Ash Bitters for this purpose. They act directly on the organs concerned, going to the seat of disease and driving it from the system. Nor do they stop here, but strengthen the system, giving it tone and action, rendering it much more capable of resisting all future attacks.

The following are the judges of election for the general election, Nov. 2nd, 1880, as appointed by the county court at its September term, 1880:

DENT TOWNSHIP—Lovel's Precinct, at school house; W. T. Crocker, D. S. Love, Joshua

Mason and Samuel Lucas.
